PROCEEDINGS IN THE CASE

On June 30, 2008, Complainant filed a verified complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights (“Division”), charging Respondent with unlawful discriminatory practices relating to employment in violation of N.Y. Exec. Law, art. 15 (“Human Rights Law”).

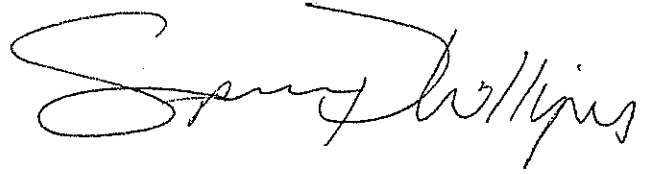

After investigation, the Division found that it had jurisdiction over the complaint and that probable cause existed to believe that Respondent had engaged in unlawful discriminatory practices. The Division thereupon referred the case to public hearing.

The case was assigned to Spencer D. Phillips, an Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) of the Division. Complainant was represented by Christina A. Agola, Esq. Respondent was represented by Paul D. Fuller, Esq.

Pursuant to Section 297.3(c) of the Human Rights Law, the complaint should be dismissed on the grounds of administrative convenience. The Complainant intends to pursue federal remedies in court, in which forum all the issues concerning the question of discrimination charged can be resolved. Respondent does not object to Complainant’s dismissal request.

ORDERED, that the case be dismissed for administrative convenience.
