

Boycott or Blacklisting Complaint Form

Instructions

1) Please fill out the complaint form, answering all of the questions. If you are filling out the form on a computer, please print it immediately when you are finished. You may not be able to save the completed form. If possible, please type. If you are filling out the form by hand, please print. Please do not write in the margins or on the back of this form.

Please note: A delay could occur in the filing and the investigation of your complaint if the form is not filled out properly or if the information you provide is not legible.

2) After you fill out the form, please have this complaint form notarized. Notary services are available at the Division free of charge. Notary services are also available at many banks, town halls, and law offices. If you have any questions about notarization, or you are unable to obtain notarization, please contact one of our offices (listed below) for further information.

3) Attach copies of any documents that you think will help the Division investigate your case.

4) Return the complaint form to the office closest to you. See below for the list of office locations. You may return the complaint by postal mail or personal delivery. You may also email your complaint to complaints@dhr.ny.gov or fax it to (718) 741-8322.

5) Keep a copy of your complaint, and copies of any documents that you attach, for your own records.

6) The completed and notarized complaint must be returned to the Division promptly. After the Division accepts your complaint, this form will be sent to the business you are charging with discrimination.

Time Limit for Filing

Please note: You must file your complaint within one year of the most recent act of alleged discrimination.

If you need further assistance or require an accommodation for a disability, please call or visit one of our offices, make an appointment, or visit our website at www.dhr.ny.gov/complaint. Interpreter services are also available at no cost upon request.

What does Boycott or Blacklist mean under the Human Rights Law?

The boycott or blacklisting provisions of the Human Rights Law make it unlawful to “boycott or blacklist, or to refuse to buy from, sell to or trade with, or otherwise discriminate against any person,” because that person, or of that person’s “partners, members, stockholders, directors, officers, managers, superintendents, agents, employees, business associates, suppliers or customers” have any of the protected characteristics listed below. (Human Rights Law § 296.13)

Examples might include:

- refusal to deliver to, or to refusal to provide services to, a particular neighborhood because of racial or ethnic composition;
- refusal of a publication to accept advertising from businesses that are owned by persons of a particular race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, etc.;
- refusal by a business to utilize the cleaning or other services of a company because its staff includes racial minorities;
- any business tactic driven by discriminatory motive towards persons or groups of persons because of they have one or more of the protected characteristics listed below.

The Division of Human Rights investigates complaints of boycotting or blacklisting based on:
Creed / Religion (religious belief, practice, or observance; or because you do not have a religious belief)
Disability (a physical or mental condition)
Familial Status (if you are pregnant, have a child, or are in the process of obtaining custody of a child, or have a child or children under age 18 in your household)
Gender Identity or Expression (actual or perceived gender-related identity, appearance, behavior, expression, or other gender-related characteristic regardless of the sex assigned to that person at birth, including, but not limited to, the status of being transgender)
Military Status (including military reserves, or being a veteran)
National Origin (the country where you or your ancestors were born)
Race/Color (because you are Asian, Black, White, mixed race, etc.; includes ethnicity; includes traits historically associated with race such as hair texture or hairstyle)
Sex (because of your gender, includes sexual stereotyping, pregnancy)
Sexual Orientation (heterosexual, homosexual, bisexual, asexual, whether actual or perceived)
Relationship or Association (with a member or members of a protected category(ies) listed above)
The Division investigates boycott or blacklisting complaints only if the discrimination is based on one or more of the above reasons. The Division cannot investigate boycott or blacklisting that does not involve one of these reasons. If you do not see anything in this list that applies to your situation, please contact the Division of Human Rights to speak to a staff member.

4. Basis of alleged discrimination:
