Statement from NYS Division of Human Rights Commissioner Helen Diane Foster on Job Ad calling for “No Haitians” to apply

“Using discriminatory language in job advertisements is not only reprehensible but also unlawful. In the State of New York, employment discrimination based on national origin, race or color is a violation of the Human Rights Law. The recent case of the “No Haitians” job advertisement is a somber reminder that discrimination in employment still occurs. The Division is collaborating with the authorities in Rockland County to ensure that all New Yorkers are afforded their rights and all businesses operating in our state understand their obligations under the law.
