Discrimination Based on Gender Identity or Expression is Against New York State Law

In January 2019, the New York State Human Rights Law was amended to add gender identity or expression as a protected category.

Discrimination on the basis of gender identity or expression is prohibited in all areas covered by the Human Rights Law, including employment, housing, places of public accommodation, and schools.

Where Should I File a Complaint?

If you believe that you have been discriminated against because of your gender identity, you can file a complaint with the NYS Division of Human Rights. Call us at 1-888-392-3644 or visit WWW.DHR.NY.GOV.
