Section 465.6. Investigations

Currentness

(a) Investigation. After the filing of a complaint, the regional director of the division office in which the complaint has been assigned for investigation or to which it has been transferred, the deputy commissioner of investigations, or any division employee duly designated by the commissioner, shall make, with the assistance of staff, a prompt and fair investigation of the allegations of the complaint.

(b) Methods. Such investigation may be made by field visit, written or oral inquiry, conference, or any other method or combination thereof deemed suitable in the discretion of the regional director, the deputy commissioner of investigations, or any division employee duly designated by the commissioner.

(c) The regional director, the deputy commissioner of investigations, or any division employee duly designated by the commissioner must review all recommendations as to determinations after investigation made by an investigator, for accuracy of facts and legal sufficiency.
